Re: United States v. Jessamy, No. 11-cr-500-KMK-4

Dear Judge Karas:

I write regarding the consent motion I filed on September 3rd asking the Court to appoint new counsel for Mr. Jessamy in light of the government's agreement that his conviction under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c) should be vacated. See Docket Entry 347.

Mr. Jessamy is currently facing sentencing on an unrelated conviction, sustained after the one in this case, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania. See United States v. Jessamy, M.D. Pa. 19-cr-171. Mr. Jessamy's lawyer in that case has advised me that he expects sentencing to occur next month.

A disposition of Mr. Jessamy's case in this Court will facilitate an accurate calculation of his criminal history for purposes of sentencing in the Pennsylvania case. Thus, I respectfully ask the Court to grant the consent motion filed on September 3rd.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Matthew B. Larsen
Assistant Federal Defender

cc: AUSA Sarah Krissoff

The Court appoints James Neuman as new counsel for Mr. Jessamy.
